Beth Fiorenza named new Executive Director of ICM Food and Clothing Bank

(Phoenix, Arizona) ICM Food and Clothing bank is excited to announce that Beth Fiorenza has been selected as its new Executive Director.

Ms. Fiorenza brings more than 20 years of nonprofit experience with her. She is passionate about helping the most vulnerable in our community and has developed programs such as the Interfaith Homeless Emergency Lodging Program (IHELP), "Shower Power" mobile shower trailer for the homeless, and the Escalante Community Garden.

Coupled with her years of nonprofit experience and serving as a volunteer on several community boards, Ms. Fiorenza was named Executive Director of the Year in 2010 by the Organization of Nonprofit Executives (ONE). Her philanthropic background includes serving as the Treasurer and Vice-President of the Kiwanis Club of Tempe, President of Tempe Leadership and graduate of the XVI class and she was named Kiwanian of the Year in 2001.

As a result of her experienced leadership, passion and dedication to human services throughout the community, Ms. Fiorenza received the Outstanding Community Leadership Award from Tempe Leadership in 2012. Art Rowland, Board Chair for ICM Food and Clothing Bank, said, "The Board is thrilled to soon be working with Beth and is confident she will foster ICM's mission of providing an immediate response to basic human needs. We are excited to welcome her to our family and continue to develop, grow and serve the needs of our community."

ICM Food and Clothing Bank has been an integral part of the community since 1983, with the mission of providing an immediate response to basic human needs for the working poor, elderly, families, children, nearly homeless and disabled in Central Phoenix. We offer services of emergency food and clothing, toiletries, and resource referrals that focus on helping those in need to become self-sufficient and prevent homelessness.
